Want to write history using corporate archives?
Want to use numbers?
Don’t know where to start?

Join 25 other historians and get the skills you need to understand economic theory, interpret quantitative sources, make sense of capitalist archives, and write the new history of capitalism from the bottom all the way to the top.

No background in mathematics or economics required.

Topics Include:
- Microeconomics
- Macroeconomics
- Econometrics
- Financial Analysis
- Corporate Finance
- Business Strategy
- Accounting
- Research Methods
- Mapping and Data Visualization

Session includes housing, breakfast, lunch, and all materials.

Instruction will be by Cornell faculty and staff.

Faculty: $2500
Graduate Students: $1500

For more information: http://hoc.ilr.cornell.edu/

“most positive academic experience I have had in a very long time”